

Research on Selective Mutism via  Selective Mutism Research Institute

** Research & Professional Conference Presentations

Published research, abstracts of research, see below:

Social Communication Anxiety Treatment (S-CAT) for Children and Families with Selective Mutism.

Assessing Spoken Language Competence in Children with Selective Mutism using Parents as Test Presenters

Testing Expressive Language in Children with Selective Mutism

A Family History Study of Selective Mutism

Basc-3 Parent Rating Scales: Profiles of Children with Selective Mutism

Beneath the Silence: Exploring the Communication Patterns in Children with Selective Mutism

Express Program For Children with Selective Mutism

A Large Sample Study of Comorbidities in Childhood Selective Mutism.

Gender Differences in the Sensory Profiles of Children with Selective Mutism.

CommuniTeens: Using Group Treatment to Build Social Communication Skill in Adolescents

Assessing the Co-occurrence of Developmental Diagnoses in Children with Selective Mutism.

Exploring the Communicative Profiles of Children with Selective Mutism: How Does Age Impact Language Skills?

Main Effects and Interactions of Age and Gender on Socio-Emotional Functioning of Children with Selective Mutism Using the BASC-3 Parent Rating Scales (PRS).

Exploration of Developmental Delays Present Among Children Diagnosed with Selective Mutism

Debunking the Myth: Selective Mutism and Trauma

Shyness and Sociability in a Large Sample of Children with Selective Mutism.

Sensory Processing Patterns in Selective Mutism using the Sensory Profile.

Updated BASC-3 Parent Rating Scales: Portrayals of Children with Selective Mutism.

Parents' Perspective: Children with Selective Mutism and Sensory Processing

What Else is Going On: Comorbidities and Selective Mutism

Perceptions are important! Caregivers' perceptions of their own and their schools' views about selective mutism

The "QUAD": Eating, Sleeping, Toileting and Difficult Behaviors in Children with Selective Mutism.

Dr. Elisa Shipon-Blum

President & Director Selective Mutism Anxiety & Related Disorders Treatment Center (SMart Center)

Director Selective Mutism Research Institute (SMRI)

Founder & Director Emeritus Selective Mutism Association

Selective Mutism Anxiety & Related Disorders Treatment Center (SMart Center)

261 Old York Road ~ Suite 900 ~ Jenkintown, PA 19046

www.SelectiveMutismCenter.org ~ 215-887-5748 ~ SMartCenter@selectivemutismcenter.org